- OTT classes: one performance of 60% or higher at the level entered

Performance Information:

- At least one qualifying score MUST have been obtained by the nominated Horse/Pony Rider combination. If there is a rider change this applies to the new Horse/Pony Rider combination also.
- To enter you must have at least one score which is at or above the required percentage for the level you are entering.
- Only one HC (non-competitive) score is allowed to count at each level entered.
- If a class is oversubscribed horses will be accepted based on their three best scores. A reserve list will be posted.

Pacific LEAGUE WORLD CUP FINAL

To be eligible for the PAL Final, combinations must have competed at a CDIW qualifier or CDI3* or higher on at least one (1) occasion in the preceding twelve (12) months and gained a minimum of at least 68% in the Grand Prix Freestyle to Music.

The Pacific League Final will consist of a maximum of fifteen (15) eligible combinations:

- Up to five (5) places will be reserved for visiting combinations. In the event the visiting NF requests more than five (5) places, the Chairman of Dressage from each NF or their nominated representative will determine the numbers from each country based on performance in the preceding twelve (12) months.
- Host NF-qualified combinations may complete the field.
- At the Pacific League Final, an Athlete may ride two (2) Horses in the Short Grand Prix or Grand Prix, however, must declare to the OC prior to the Short Grand Prix or Grand Prix draw which of the two (2) Horses is their nominated choice for the Grand Prix Freestyle to Music.
- Only one (1) Horse per Athlete is permitted in the Grand Prix Freestyle to Music
- The highest placed combination from the PAL Final is eligible to represent the PAL at the FEI Dressage World Cup TM Final of the season, provided they have reached the minimum qualification criteria of having scored at least 68% in the Grand Prix Freestyle to Music in a CDIW qualifier, including the PAL Final on two different occasions.
- If the winning combination is unable to travel to the FEI Dressage World Cup TM Final, the next placed Athlete/Horse combination from the Pacific League Final may represent the League at the FEI Dressage World Cup TM Final.
- In the event that neither combination as stated in Art 13.7 and 13.8 is able to take part in the FEI Dressage World Cup TM Final, the AUS and NZL NF Selectors may nominate an Athlete/Horse combination from the PAL region which is domiciled in another NF and has declared prior to the start of the season to qualify for the PAL (Athlete/Horse combination is subject to having scored at least 68% in the Grand Prix Freestyle to Music in a CDIW qualifier on two (2) different occasions). This place will not be considered as an Extra Starting place, but as the PAL place. If the AUS and NZL Selectors cannot agree on which Athlete/Horse combination to nominate (as per the process above), The FEI will select the AUS or NZL Athlete (provided they have fulfilled the AUS/NZL requirement to declare as above) with the highest ranking on the FEI World Ranking List – Athletes for February of the year of the FEI Dressage World Cup TM Final.

Horse WELFARE

FEI CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE WELFARE OF THE HORSE

The Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) requires all those involved in international equestrian sport to adhere to the FEI's Code of Conduct and to always acknowledge and accept that the welfare of the horse must be paramount and must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences.

1. At all stages during the preparation and training of competition horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good horse management, training methods, farriery and tack, and transportation.
2. Horses and competitors must be fit, competent and in good health before they are allowed to compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and the misuse of aids.
3. Events must not prejudice horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the competition areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the horse for onward travel after the event.
4. Every effort must be made to ensure that horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.
5. The FEI urges all those involved in equestrian sport to attain the highest possible levels of education in their areas of expertise relevant to the care and management of the competition horse.

Conditions OF ENTRY

APPLICABLE EQUESTRIAN AUSTRALIA (EA) DOCUMENTS AND REQUIREMENTS

1. This Equestrian Victoria (EV) event is governed by the Equestrian Australia (EA) General Regulations, applicable EA Sports Rules and all relevant EA Codes, policies, bylaws, rules and regulations. The EA Sports rules (i.e. the National Rules for each EA sport or discipline) and regulations may be accessed on the EA website "Discipline Rules & Regulations" page via the following link https://www.equestrian.org.au/rules. The EA Codes, Policies etc. may be accessed on the EA website "Policies & Bylaws" page via the following link https://www.equestrian.org.au/policies.
2. To be eligible to participate in this event you must be a current EV member or current member of an EA state branch. You must also satisfy any further membership or registration requirement (including those for any horse entered) referred to in the General Conditions of Entry for the event (Conditions of Entry) and individual disciplines.
3. The EA National Sports Rules applicable to the event are referred to in the Conditions of Entry.
4. All EA and EV events are subject to the EA Code of Conduct (Code of Conduct).
5. It is important that all members understand that the Code of Conduct also covers parents, guardians and spectators in respect of any activity held or sanctioned by EV or an EA state branch. A key aim of the Code of Conduct is to respect the rights of everyone involved, to abide by all EA rules and requirements, to be fair, considerate, honest and professional in all aspects of the sport.
6. EA and EV are committed to the protection and welfare of its members. The EA Member Protection Policy (MPP) can be accessed on its website via the following link https://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/NIF%20Member%20Protection%20Policy%20December%202021.pdf. The EA Social Media Policy, which can be accessed via the following link, should be read in conjunction with the MPP. https://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/Equestrian_Australia_Social_Media_Policy_February2018.pdf These are important documents designed to ensure the safe and fair conduct of the event for everyone involved. They should be read, understood and complied with.
7. EA and EV events are also subject to various codes and regulations designed to protect the horse, the welfare of which is paramount (Horse Welfare Provisions). Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the Horse Welfare Provisions and ensure that they are complied with. These Provisions may be accessed on the EA website via the following link http://www.equestrian.org.au/policies.

8. If the event is conducted at Werribee Park National Equestrian Centre (WPNEC) the WPNEC Risk Management Conditions shall apply to the event. The Risk Management Conditions can be accessed via the following link <https://wpnec.com.au/risk-management/>.

MEDICATION CONTROL

This event will be run in accordance with the current EA Medication Control Policy and the FEI Equine Anti-Doping and Controlled Medication Regulations.

PROTEST

Any appeal or protest must be made in writing and accompanied by a bond of AUD$200 to the event secretary. No bond is required to protest relating to abuse. If a protest is to be lodged it must be within 30 minutes from the posting of final scores in accordance with Annexe F 15(d) and Rule 7.14 (c) of the EA National Dressage Rules.

ENTRANTS AND COMPETITORS BOUND BY EA DOCUMENTS

1. Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the provisions of the EA documents referred to above (EA documents) and ensure that they comply with them.
2. By submitting an entry for the event you agree to comply with and be bound by the provisions of the EA documents, these Special Conditions and the Conditions of Entry.
3. If you are the parent or guardian of a participant or competitor under the age of 18 years, by submitting an entry for the event you consent to their participation in the event and undertake to the best of your ability to ensure that they understand and comply with the provisions of the EA documents, these Special Conditions and The Conditions of Entry.
4. If there is any conflict in the interpretation between the provisions of the General Regulations and any of the EA documents, these Special Conditions or the Conditions of Entry, the General Regulations will take precedence. If there is any conflict in the interpretation between the provisions of these Special Conditions and the Conditions of Entry, the Special Conditions will take precedence.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

The Equestrian Victoria Social Media policy along with the FEI social media policy will be in play and heavily policed. Competitors may not make derogatory, offensive, or inflammatory comments about other Participants, EA, EV, the FEI, Dressage Victoria the organising committee or any other individuals involved in equestrian sport.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Failure to comply may result in sanctions including being asked to leave the venue at any time with no refund.
